Current Position and Focus (areas of research and/or interest in economic geology)

MercenaryGeologist.com: Exploration and mining analyst, writer, and speaker.

Relevant Education/Work Experience

Certified Professional Geologist with a B.Sc. Earth Sciences with honor from the University of Tulsa, and M.Sc. Geology from the University of New Mexico. I have 35 years experience as an exploration geologist and analyst searching for economic deposits of base and precious metals, industrial minerals, coal, uranium, oil and gas, and water in North and South America, Europe, and Asia. I worked for junior explorers, major mining companies, private companies, and investors as a consulting economic geologist for over 20 years, specializing in geological mapping, property evaluation, and business development. I am high-altitude proficient, bilingual in English and Spanish, and from 2003 to 2006 made four outcrop ore discoveries in Peru, Nevada, Chile, and British Columbia.

Personal Philosophy on Mentoring

I am fortunate to have three mentors that furthered my career immensely.
I want to encourage young geologists to follow the rewarding and fascinating career of mineral exploration.
See the world, explore, discover, develop, and create wealth. Make the Earth a better place to live for all people.

Languages Comfortable Communicating With

English, Spanish (conversational)

Other Relevant Information

Available for mentoring in mineral exploration, property evaluation, company analysis, and financial aspects of venture capital and the junior exploration business.
