Personal Philosophy on Mentoring

A mentor once told me that "life is all about finding out"; I have applied this concept in my exploration work and personal life with success. I am interested in mentoring students and young geologists who wish to not only enhance their career, but their lives.

Languages Comfortable Communicating With

English and spoken Indonesian

Other Relevant Information

I enjoy working in porphyry-, epithermal-, and Carlin like-systems and applying structural geology and geochemistry towards discovery. I lecture on these topics and past exploration experiences.
